Day 1: Missouri Today, we begin our relaxing journey to Cajun Country traveling to Hayti, Missouri. A cocktail dinner reception awaits. Optional Lady Luck Casino.

Day 2: Baton Rouge, Louisiana This morning, we cross into Mississippi and head to Baton Rouge, Louisiana, our home for the next 5 nights. Cocktails and dinner await!

Day 3: USS Kidd and Baton Rouge Spend time in the capitol city of LA. Visit the USS Kidd. Tour the tallest state capitol in the country and visit the Old Governor's Mansion, a copy of the White House. A trip to L'Auberge Casino for a dinner buffet and gambling ends the day!

Day 4: The Atchafalaya Basin and Avery Island Journey into Cajun country for a morning "swamp tour." Avery Island is home to the Tabasco Pepper Sauce Factory. Enjoy a tour and visit the adjoining Jungle Gardens and Bird City.

Day 5: Plantation Country A stop at the West Baton Rouge Museum offers a look at the rigors of daily life prior to the Civil War. We'll visit 3 different types of plantations today, each with a history of their own.

Day 6: New Orleans Gain an insider's view of how Mardi Gras is made while at Mardi Gras World. Learn it's history and real traditions. Sample King's Cake! Enjoy free time in the French Quarter for shopping, exploring and perhaps a Beignet at Café du Monde! Step aboard the Natchez Steamship for a Jazz cruise and live commentary of the river sites and history. Enjoy dinner at Mulate's, the original Cajun restaurant known for it's food, music and culture found in the small towns and along the bayous of south Louisiana .

Day 7: Canton, Mississippi Enjoy our stop at the historic town of Canton with it's Square, home to many unique retail shops, museums, and eateries and retrace steps of many films shot in the area. An optional casino trip is available tonight.

Day 8: Homeward Bound As our tour draws to a close, one last stop is made for a hearty lunch in Tuscola, IL at Flesor's Candy Kitchen. With sweet tooth polished, we enjoy a tour of their candy shop and time to pick up last minute edible souvenirs!
